CINE 690: Independent Production Practice
FACULTY/STUDENT AGREEMENT

Course Prerequisites: Senior Cinema major; CINE 340; CINE 341; CINE GWAR course; GPA minimum of 3.0; permission of instructor

Note: Students enrolled in CINE 690 do not have production equipment or insurance privileges. Students should consult with the supervising instructor about access to departmental spaces (e.g., Foley room, editing suites, etc.).

Student Name ________________________________  Student ID # ____________________________
Email ________________________________________  Phone _____________________________
Supervising Instructor __________________________  Semester _____________________________

To be completed by the student:

1. Brief summary of proposed project:

2. What skills, knowledge, and learning objectives have been agreed upon by you and the instructor?

3. How will these objectives be achieved? How often will you meet with the instructor?

4. Description of final work to be submitted (e.g., written work, edited project, etc.) and deadline to submit:

_____________________________________________  _________________________________
Signed (Student)                                Date

_____________________________________________  _________________________________
Signed (Instructor)                             Date